A BONZA BONANZA OF KOALAS, KOOKABURRAS AND CROCS!!!

Bruce thinks he's the loneliest creature in the Great Sandy Desert. Can he become the most famous animal Down Under?

Rubber Duck premieres its latest stunning children's show, How Does the Kanga-Roo?, at C Venues +2 (Venue 34). Written by award-winning playwright Chris Bush, the show will run 30th July – 25th August 2008.

Join our plucky heroine Joey as she befriends Bruce the talking kangaroo, Darwin the bookish koala, Ozzy the lazy wombat and a whole host of other new mates! Colourful costumes, sets and a magical score complete this dazzling tale of friendship, discovery and kangaroos.

Rubber Duck Theatre have become one of the most respected children's theatre companies at the Fringe. They first stormed the festival in 2006 with their sell-out production of Roald Dahl's Fantastic Mr. Fox ( - edinburghguide.com). In 2007 they returned to more acclaim with The Giraffe and the Pelly and Me ('the stuff of every child's dreams' – The List).

For more info about the show please contact Elinor Groom on 07970074806. For company info or a press pack please email rubberduckproductions@hotmail.co.uk.

If you wish to book tickets you can do so via C Venues or the Edinburgh Fringe Box Office.
